Terms and Conditions:

1. Due to our professional schedules, a minimum of four weeks' notice is generally necessary, to ensure physician availability for depositions. Most depositions are scheduled in our office after 5:00 pm to avoid interruption in patient care and to avoid the office closure fee. Deposition schedules are subject to change based upon changes in professional schedule (emergencies only).
2. Cancellations or changes in deposition or trial dates once scheduled and confirmed on the physicians calendar will not be refunded for any reason including settlement of case. Special or rare circumstances may be considered and are at the discretion of the physician.
3. There will be a $850.00 charge for legal IME late cancels (within 10 calendar days prior to the IME date) $1500 for a no show (includes one hour of record review)
4. Please provide all medical records / documents bound, tabbed and in chronological order.
5. The client requesting our professional services is responsible for the balance of all fees if opposing counsel obtains a reduction through the court.
6. Scheduling of legal exams or other services indicates acceptance of the terms and conditions listed.
